Valentino Garavani | May 11th, 1932 - January 19th, 2026

"Valentino Garavani was not only a constant guide and inspiration for all of us, but a true source of light, creativity, and vision. His extraordinary example shapes the way we think, create, and work, and he will continue to guide us every day.

With profound gratitude and a deep sense of responsibility, we are committed to honoring his legacy by carrying forward his vision with passion, dedication, and an unwavering commitment to beauty and the future."

Our deepest thanks to each and every one of You for standing by us with respect and love during these days of profound sorrow.

Our heartfelt gratitude goes to the press and the media, and to all who remembered, paid their respects and honored Valentino through words, images, thoughts and shared memories.
